

Terrestrial Hellworld

Northwind Wolves

INTRO- "Should i Kill Myself, or Kill everyone around me ?"I have seen , what hell is like , a place so dark that death won't follow.Have you felt true pain inside? i'm in Endless Pain , withdrawn and Hollow.
Yet, i'll live on another day, til' death descends and i slip away...My blood's reflections' in my eyes
 , That silver blade, that stays by my side.
 But i really died , so long ago ,and what you saw was just for show, so let it go...With this Knife , i'll end my life, so bring me face to face with Death !!!With My last whispers to the wind, i'm Thinking back on all my sins... so i'll take the chance i have ahead , to leave your hell and join the dead.Beneath the moon ,and Clouded skies, I take a breath and close my eyes
 With no idea what lies ahead, I end my life and join the dead...
 To stop the pain within my heart, i'll make this whole world fall apart
And once again i walk alone, and prepare to enter the Unknown.They'll try to call it suicide, now try to see through all their lies nothing matters that i ever said, so I leave this world to you instead...
