

Disconnect

Kristinia Debarge

Another day of no more you
I'm givin' everyone attitude
I'm losin' air and slowly dyin'
Killin' me if I can't be around you I don't wanna be too dramatic Breakin' up is problematic
I don't even know what to do But all I know is that I'm missin' you
I don't care for nothin' else but you
I'm like two steps from losin' it
One more step, I disconnect
Feel like I might as well be dead
No, I really don't think I'll make it without you
Not about to, baby I try to deal but it don't make sense
I can't believe this is happenin'
I'm losin' tears with all this cryin'
If you were here, I'm sure it would drown you
Would drown you No, I don't wanna make it sound so tragic
No, I believe we still got magic
I just need to know you do too But all I know is that I'm missin' you
I don't care for nothin' else but you
I'm like two steps from losin' it
One more step, I disconnect
Feels like I might as well be dead
No, I really don't think I'll make it without you
Not about to, baby I'm like two steps from losin' it
No, I really don't think I'll make it without you
Not about to, baby You better not give up, you know that you can't
I love you too much for this to end
You gotta come through, boy
I'm countin' on you, boy, you know what to do, boy You should call a girl up and save her life
Tell her you're not gonna let her die
No way that's gonna happen tonight, no But all I know is that I'm missin' you
I don't care for nothin' else but you
I'm like two steps from losin' it
One more step, I disconnect
Feels like I might as well be dead And all I know is that I'm missin' you
And I don't care for nothin' else but you
I'm like two steps from losin' it
And one more step, I disconnect
Feel like I might as well be dead

No, I really don't think I'll make it without you
Not about to And I'm like two steps from losin' it
No, I really don't think I'll make it without you
Not about to And all I know is that I'm missin' you
I don't care for nothin' else but you
I'm like two steps from losin' it
One more step, I disconnect
Feel like I might as well be dead And all I know is that I'm missin' you
I don't care for nothin' else but you
I'm like two steps from losin' it
One more step, I disconnect
Feel like I might as well be dead
No, I really don't think I'll make it without you
Not about to, baby
