

He's Not On His Knees Yet

CeCe Winans

He doesn't know his worth
Wears the saddest smile on earth
But he denies it Love is reaching out to him
But he won't let it in
He defies it, he defies it He's not ready
He's not on his knees yet
He's too strong to be weak
Show him mercy He's not on his knees yet
Let him break please
Make him better
Put the pieces back together He thinks that he's alone
I have walked the road he's on
And I know he's searching Looking everywhere but up
He can't fill his empty cup
So he keeps hurting, he keeps hurting He's not ready
He's not on his knees yet
He's too strong to be weak
Show him mercy
He's not on his knees yet Let him break please
Make him better
Put the pieces back together
Help him please
He's not on his knees yet
