The Wait

The Merricks

You wait, wait
You wait for summer
Then you wait for rain
You wait, you wait
You wait for darkness
Then you wait for day
Yeah, you wait
You wait
You wait
And she says
"Patience, darling
Patience, patience
It will come"
You wait, wait
You wait for August

Then you wait for May
You wait, wait
You wait to get there
Then you wait to play
You wait, you wait
You wait for someday
That'll make the waiting
Worth the wait
The wait
You wait
And she says
"Patience, darling
Patience, patience
It will come"
