

The Perfect Boy (Mix 13)

The Cure

"You and me are the world"
She said
"Nothing else is real
The two of us is all there is
The rest is just a dream...
Always meant to be
I can feel it
Like a destiny thing
Written in the stars
Inescapable fate
Yeah it's out of my hands
Falling into your arms"" And I don't want to get innocent
But I would love you to take my time
We're on the edge of a beautiful thing"
She said
"Come on...
Let's stay here for a while"
Oh girl!
He is the one for sure
Oh girl!
He is the perfect boy" Yeah me and you are a world"
He said
"But not the only one I need
The two of us is never all there is
That doesn't happen for real
If it was meant to be us
It was meant to be now
Don't see the sense in wasting time
If you're so sure about this
Laurel kismet hardy thing
You know tonight you're mine"
"And I don't want to get obvious
But I have to be gone by three
Were on the edge of a beautiful thing"
He said
"So come on... jump with me" Oh girl!
He's not the one for sure
Oh girl!
He's not so wonderful

Oh girl!
He's not the one for sure
Oh girl!
He's not the perfect boy at all "You and me are the world"
She says
"Nothing else is real
The two of us is all there is
The rest is just a dream... "And her heart may be broken
A hundred times
But the hurt will never destroy
Her hope...The happy ever after girl
One day finds the perfect boy
