

The Chosen One

Jaheim

Yea Yea

I choose you baby

Oh Oh Oh Oh I choose you baby

Yea

Verse 1:

I can push that whip off a showcase floor

Put tv screens in the headrest door

Something a little more mature

Preparing for the future

Put the down on something

With a fence, a roof, and a door

Or the jewellery store

A pinky ring or ring for her(and)

Cherish her forever more

What could be better

Something for myself

Or for my baby

Pre Hook:

All the places I can be

And people I can see

Or the only one for me

The decision was easy to make

I choose you over everything

Hook:

And I just wanna love my baby

I thank the heavens for the gift he gave me

Oh and I just wanna say

Oh Oh Oh just wanna love ya

There ain't a thing I would'nt do for you

Change my life so I could live it for you

Verse 2:

Camaflouge get from the corner stores

Holding the dice tryna get a little more

Or something more secure

In the house cuddled up on the couch

With the woman adore

Or in the streets steady breaking the law

Or creeping with my ex trying not to get caught

Or wifing you
Ready yo die for you
Oh yea that's all I wanna do

Pre Hook:

All the places I can be
And people I can see
Or the only one for me
The decision was easy to make
I choose you over everything

Hook:

And I just wanna love my baby
I thank the heavens for the gift he gave me
Oh and I just wanna say
There ain't a thing I would'nt do for you
Change my life so I could live it for you

Bridge:

Out of all the things that I been through
I'd rather be kicking it with my boo
When the pillows not enough
And theres no one to cuff
I hit her up and she comes through
Can't no other chick compare to her
She can pull it off rocking Timbs and a fur
She my class ghetto girl
And I would'nt give her up for the world
Repeat Hook Until End
