

Safety

Southcott

Promise to keep these promises, I write but never read out loud.
For their deafening sound, could shake the very ground, below the swollen clouds.If the bombs explode, outside our homes, you'll be safe with me.
if the dead awake,
from their graves,
you'll be safe with me.so hide out,
in your house,
close your eyes,
i'll keep you safe and sound,drink the night away, let the poison coarse your veins.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>