Out of Touch

Squeeze

You find a hair on my jacket
And you know it's not mine
You look at my pillow
But you're wasting your timeBecause I'm out of touch with you
Your smile no longer sings
I'm so out of touch with you
Now your phone forever ringsYou see a code in my book
But it doesn't ring a bell
And this girl I am seeing
Says she really couldn't tellBecause I'm out of touch with you
I have seen another heart
I was so in love with you
Love and thanks, I can, I can'tI won't comb my hair for you anymore
I won't be in early
I won't be in late
I won't be in at all so don't sit in and waitYou hear a howl in the dark
And you can hope that it is me
But there are no chances
Now there's no one else to seeBecause I'm out of touch with you
Your trap was never sprung
I'm so out of touch with you
So the final verse is sungI'm so out of touch with you
I won't be in early
I won't be in late
I won't be in at all so don't sit in and waitDon't sit in and wait
Don't sit in and wait
Don't sit in and wait
