Koln

Brolin

Someone watching,
Could you tap the break?
The line is moving,
I don't mind; I can wait.

Time to get up.
It's calling your name now.
Better to get up.

You can lean against me, darling.
I will pull you,
Under the waves; it will soften the blow.
You can lean against me, darling.
I will hold you.
You know, you know, you know.

Oh, sweet silence.
Love to play.
If I smash these cups and saucers will you go far away?

It's time to get up.
They're calling my name now.
You better get up.

You can lean against me, darling.
I will pull you,
Under the waves; it will soften the blow.
You can lean into this sweetness.
I will hold you.
You know, you know, you know.

You can lean against me, darling.
I will pull you,
Under the waves; it will soften the blow.
You can lean into this sweetness.
I will hold you.
