

Emergency

Russ

Yeah, yeah

Oh, mmm

Yeah, yeah

Yeah I been climbin', the view's spectacular

Even if I crash, I'd rather drive than be the passenger

Slightly philosophical, I wanna die young as old as possible

As of late, I been feelin' responsible

For my family's livelihood, I think tonight we should

Celebrate the fact that I'm a star and that the likelihood

Of me blowin', in the next couple of months is definite

Anticipate me comin' like the porn stars in my messages

Speakin' of porn stars, all my exes all Latinas

Hits them like tequila when they see me in arenas, and yeah

It hasn't happened yet but trust me, y'all gon' pay for it

Beatin' devils in disguise is everything I prayed for

I learned a lot though from all the above

I guess God got a job at the comedy club

But fuck that, I'm buzzin' now, whole industry flockin'

'Cause I'm the people's champ and you just industry poppin', c'mon

I been travelin' a lot now

Got to find the time to

Take it in and take a step back

Kick it with the family

I cannot help it that I'm focused on my vision

All the time, it just feels like it's an emergency

I tell my mama, don't you cry, I'll be back soon though

Always moving with a sense of urgency Yeah, yeah, I swear I had a year that you can't ignore

I swear that no one's ever won, how I'm winnin' before

Pretty women like Julia Roberts come to the concerts

And scream daddy but I ain't about to adopt her

I gotta conquer and collect

Every motherfuckin' check, tryna pay a couple tuitions

Write 'em off as an expense

Let the takeover commence

If I say it, I believe it, you just dream of success

I stay awake to achieve it, this crazy seeing

Girls I used to crush on, fuckin' to my love songs

Yeah, I'm gettin' commas but I'm 'bout to get my run on

Flights bi-coastal, everythin' paid for

That's just how it goes when you take what they wait for Things are pickin' up, I'm just tryna find the peace
Some people shine and give it back but my shine is not a lease
This is permanently owned, if I lose it, it's on my terms
I don't wish for shit, I desired and acquire
I been travelin' a lot now
Got to find the time to
Take it in and take a step back
Kick it with the family
I cannot help it that I'm focused on my vision
All the time, it just feels like it's an emergency
I tell my mama, don't you cry, I'll be back soon though
Always moving with a sense of urgency
No failure is final, no success is permanent
It's madness, mom really 'bout to march like the tournament
Certain shits been fuckin' up my days and nights
Like yeah, my parents got no money so I guess I gotta pay the price
At least I have it, let me get my blessings straight
If this was last year, we'd be food stamps and Section 8
Awkward conversations with my dad he's feelin' cursed
He's askin' me for gas it's like the roles are reversed
Monitor what Russ' makin', feelin' like I'm suffocatin'
Feelin' like I need 10 shots and 2 blunts to chase it
Acceptin' what is and lettin' go of what was Havin' faith in what could be if I just one up
Myself every time I let the chips fall, where they may
I got pit stops in LA, makin' shit pop every day, yeah
People stumble on stones that I used to step on
The chips I mentioned earlier, I pick 'em up and bet on myself
I been travelin' a lot now
Got to find the time to
Take it in and take a step back
Kick it with the family
I cannot help it that I'm focused on my vision
All the time, it just feels like it's an emergency
I tell my mama, don't you cry, I'll be back soon though
Always moving with a sense of urgency
