Movin' On

Crystal Bowersox

I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
I wanna take all this love I feel and I
Know that it's stronger than steel with you
I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
I wanna take all the lovely things you say and
Make a love that's stronger than clay with you
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Bridges burn and buildings fall and time can tear down walls

Leave you begging on your knees
Time may steal your human ways
Leave lines upon your face,
Leave you drifting out to sea
But you will always have a hold on me
I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
I wanna drink you up like a cool spring water
Lay holdin' bricks and mortar with you
I wanna drink you up like a cool spring water
Lay holdin' bricks and mortar with you
I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
