

Metal Heart (2008 Version)

Cat Power

Losing the star without a sky
Losing the reasons why
You're losing the calling that you've been faking
And I'm not kidding It's damned if you don't and it's damned if you do
Be true 'cause they'll lock you up in a sad, sad zoo
Oh, hidy, hidy, hidy what cha tryin' to prove
By hidy, hidy hiding you're not worth a thing Sew your fortunes on a string and hold them up to light
Blue smoke will take a very violent flight
And you will be changed and everything
And you will be in a very sad sad zoo I once was lost but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see you
How selfish of you to believe in the meaning
Of all the bad dreaming
