Shut It Down

Against All Authority

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Three chords and six strings
They're screaming how they're gonna change things
They're young, they're strong and proud
We turn it up cause we like it loudThree chords and six strings
They're screaming how they're gonna change things
They're young, they're strong and proud
We turn it up cause we like it loudThey're young but the lines have been drawn
And they're still gonna be here when you're gone
And years from now when your clique has moved on They'll still be in the basement till the break of dawnSweating blood into every single song
And still feeling like they don't belongAnd it'll be here for the down and out
And every generation that needs to shout
About injustice or
Just how we need to shut this fucker downShut it down
Shut it down
You just can't shut this motherfucker downYou can slag it when you leave and spite it
You can't shut this fucker down
It still burns with the fire that once ignited you
You can't shut this fucker downShut this fucker down
Shut it down
Shut it down
You just can't shut this fucker downThey're young but you were there too
Don't think they're posing just because they never knew
The songs or the scene, it was there before you
And it's way more important than your hair and tattoosTake what you need and leave when you're through
And keep your mouth shut when you doAnd it'll be here for the down and out
And every generation that needs to shout
About injustice or
Just how we need to shut this fucker downShut it down
Shut it down
You just can't shut this motherfucker downYou can slag it when you leave and spite it
You can't shut this fucker down

It still burns with the fire that once ignited you
You can't shut this fucker downShut this fucker down
Shut it down
Shut it down
You just can't shut this fucker downThree chords and six strings
They're screaming how they're gonna change things
They're young, they're strong and proud
We turn it up cause we like it loudThree chords and six strings
They're screaming how they're gonna change things
They're young, they're strong and proud
We turn it up cause we like it loudShut it down
Shut it down
You just can't shut this motherfucker downYou can slag it when you leave and spite it
You can't shut this fucker down
It still burns with the fire that once ignited you
You can't shut this fucker downShut this fucker down
Shut it down
Shut it down
You just can't shut this fucker down
