

Tigger's Daily Jog (Un-Rated)

Poor Old Lu

This quick little ditty came out of a late night session with Nick, Aaron and Scott. Aaron was in the control room playing the recorder (and recording), Nick was playing the drum parts, and Scott was playing the washboard type sound while banging the tambourine with his foot. The song was great, but we found that the recorder part that Aaron did was really the clincher for it. We just had to use this track on something!
