

Heroes (feat. Laura Mvula)

Tinie Tempah

Victory is ours, mystery empowers
History empowers, the victory smells sweet
Tryna get into heaven racing through hell's street
Dancing with the devil with my two left feet
Rocking with the devil up on New Year's Eve
6, 5, 4, 3, 2 as the devil in the red riding blue just leaves
She says I'm a motherfucker, see you and she
Say hello to everybody, favorite new MC
Loving the alphabet, except you and V
Some of these motherfuckers getting too friendly
Why the fuck am I staying next to two MPs
Bullshit politics, I'm tryna find where knowledge is
'Cause it ain't in these school and colleges
? tryna step the whole wide world with no apology EVERYONE'S A HERO
Yeah, we all learn to fly the wind
No tears when the sun goes home
'Cause heroes never die, no
EVERYONE'S A HERO
We are bound accepting changes
And heaven raised piano
'Cause heroes lost today, today, today Finally fuck the? 'cause I be going, going, gone full of temper
Ask me more one question about our senses
I go deeper, I lose my fucking temper? no race, religion or gender
See these niggas get the saddest case of dementia
