

Growing Old

AJ Odneal

growing loud
growing up growing love out of our ears telling thruths
weaving lies all the words i cannot hear and through the silence make no sound hide our love deep underground cancel plans to search around love is lost and love is found growing strong growing soft growing daisies in our loft picking rooms

painting walls
and the blue tape you tear off making tea
making time making plants beneath the soil now the water's at a boil share the love before it spoils oohhh woaaaaooooaooaahhh ooohh woaaaaooooaooaahh ooooh woaaaaooooaooaooaahh growing tall growing out growing infants like to shout paying bills

paying fines this is not what live's about lacking sleep and caffeine found a penny with my luck now the coffee's warming up pour the love into my cup

ooooh woaaaoaaooaaooooaooaahh

growing wise
doing all the things we're told losing sound losing sight
reading all the books in bold longer skirt ancient things and the people we once knew come closer let me come through come closer let me love you oohhh woaaaoaaooaaooooaahhh ooohh woaaaoaaooaaooooaahh
