

Movin on From You

Novi Novak

That's beautiful, I love that! I'm doin that for sure

Hahaha

Okay no no for real, ima do it for real this time

See

You never seemed to care before

You'd just diss and disagree

But now that I done moved along oh

I wonder what you see in me

And Too Often I'm reminded of you! Ya Bitch!

And It's Mostly because of all the shit you put me through

I feel like your mom she hates me

I feel your pops he hates me

Your friends all over place me

And ya exes are just waiting

Cuz people change, The equal change

Then that change our perception

The heat exchange

We place some blame

Then aim in all directions

And misapprehensions just lead to the worse

Them lies lead to the hurt

We promise we go make it work

But then look at the times we didn't work

So I'm sorry for a few things

Mainly how the truth brings

Things that you did on the low

Cuz You don't know what truth means

Always on some new schemes

Actin like I'd never know

So when you realize what you've lost don't call

Don't knock don't mail or Facebook at all

Cuz if my phone rings today (Or Tomorrow)

I'm only gonna pick up to say

So Hows it Feel....

How it's feel now that I'm gone

And I'm gone forever never comin back

I got my mind on the road ahead
While you on the phone with your ex again
Lowerin your bar let's not pretend
I'm movin on from you
Your bullshish and your drama too
Whoah oh oh oh
I'm movin on from you
So I guess that's what Karma Do
Whoah

It's like
For you though, it may hurt now
But... That's just how shit worked out
I really can't letcha on my nerves now
With all that mean stuff that you'd blurt out
The no cure route that you'd blur out
To insure doubts and getcha hurt out
We had a flame but as it turns out
With enough tears, it'll burn out
And that's just what you did to us
Little bit of me but mostly you
Don't act like I don't I know the truth
You ain't gotta lie we already through
And now that you can't have me, I'm sure you'll want me back
Buuuut... we both know I'm too smart for all that huh

So I'm sorry for a few things
Mainly how the truth brings
Things that you did on the low
Cuz You don't know what truth means
Always on some new schemes
Actin like I'd never know
So when you realize what you've lost don't call
Don't knock don't mail or Facebook at all
Cuz if my phone rings today (Or Tomorrow)
I'm only gonna pick up to say

So Hows it Feel....
How it's feel now that I'm gone
And I'm gone forever never comin back
I got my mind on the road ahead
While you on the phone with your ex again
Lowerin your bar let's not pretend
I'm movin on from you
Your bullshish and your drama too

Whoah oh oh oh
I'm movin on from you
So I guess that's what Karma Do
Whoah

Drive By Drive By
You hit me and you left
Can't let ya slide by slide by
With all that disrespect

No No no No no no No no
Hell naw
Oh No No no no no no
No No no No no no No no
Oh No No no no no no
Hell naw
Oh No No no nuh no no

I'm movin on from you
Your bullshish and your drama too
Whoah oh oh oh
I'm movin on from you
So I guess that's what Karma Do
Whoah

I'm movin on from you
Your bullshish and your drama too
Whoah oh oh oh
I'm movin on from you
So I guess that's what Karma Do
