24/7

Kevon Edmonds

Baby it's no mystery
You're bringing out the best in me
And though I've been in love before
I've never had the kind of love
That made me feel secureI never thought that give and take Mentality was right for me
You made me open up and see, that it's for real
And there's no other place I'd rather beThink about you all the time
24-7 babe
The love I have inside for you
Is more than any words can say
Thanking God on bended knee
We'll always be together babe
You and meIf there's a high or low
Anything can be babe
I'll be there for you
To pick you up off your feet, yeah
Thanking God on bended knee
We'll always be together babe
You and meWhen I'm in my nine to five
A smile went across my lips when I
Daydream about the night before
I count the minutes
Till I'm in your arms once moreMy friends still don't understand, no
In me they see a brand new man
I give you props and tell them that
My shorty's 'bout it
She personifies the love she givesThink about you all the time
24-7 babe
The love I have inside for you
Is more than any words can say
Thanking God on bended knee
We'll always be together babe
You and meIf there's a high or low
Anything can be babe
I'll be there for you
To pick you up off your feet, yeah
Thanking God on bended knee
We'll always be together babe

You and meOh how I've waited for this moment in my life
If it's you that I adore baby with you am I secure
My life is in your hands and now I understand
What it means to be in love again
Never gonna let you go, oh noThink about you all the time
24-7 babe
The love I have inside for you
Is more than any words can say
Thanking God on bended knee
We'll always be together babe
You and meIf there's a high or low
Anything can be babe
I'll be there for you
To pick you up off your feet, yeah
Thanking god on bended knee
We'll always be together babe
You and meThink about you all the time
Think about you all the time
The love I have inside for you
Is more than any words can say
Thanking God on bended knee
Oh we'll always be together babe
You and meIf there's a high or low
Anything can be babe
I'll be there for you
To pick you up off your feet, yeah
Thanking God on bended knee
We'll always be together babe
You and meThink about you all the time
24-7 babe
The love I have inside for you
Is more than any words can say
Thanking God on bended knee
We'll always be together babe
You and meIf there's a high or low
Anything can be babe
