

Primetime (feat. Ty Brasel)

KB

Yeah yeah woah
My my, I took them losses
Now it's time to grind
My mama told me: Never stay down
Yeah, jump back right it's primetime
Primetime
Yeah, I took them losses now it's time to grind
My mama told me: Never stay down
Yeah, jump right back it's primetime
Primetime, oh, primetime Took a L
Jump back right
Deion, Deion, Deion yeah it's primetime
Jump back right
Deion, Deion, Deion yeah it's primetime
Boy, you're back in, yeah
All I wanted a little La Toya Jackson, yeah
Started college at age of 15 reppin', yo
They say young K you be a corporate savage, yo
Jehovah snatched me
Laid it down like 21
No one mattered
And I took some losses
But I know that they didn't damage
Man, that's supernatural, I'm that organic
No, that's Google Map on you, I got direction
Don't get advantage when you in abandon
Nothing handed daddy wasn't coming back
Yahweh Padre passed the calimari
All He need is nothing bring something back
That's just a humble fact (woh woh woh)
I see L's like new lessons
And every loss I gain like the best dress
I'm not even looking for no new lessons, yo yo
Suffer now in Heaven I'll be counting blessings
Hold me
My my, I took them losses
Now it's time to grind, yeah
My mamma told me: Never stay down

Yeah, jump back right it's primetime
Primetime, yeah
I took them losses now it's time to grind
My mama told me: Never stay down, yeah
Jump right back it's primetime
Primetime, oh, primetime Took a L
Jump back right
Deion, Deion, Deion, yeah, it's primetime
Jump back right
Deion, Deion, Deion, yeah, it's primetime Praying hands mama praying hands in the bedroom 2 a.m., 3 a.m. bended knee, you
Held me down always held me down
I was reckless (I was reckless)
Pouring the fo', swallow the xans with my breakfast
Young and wildin', uh, young and wildin'
I remember blaspheming God, cash fiending
Hard hash demon, raw trash treating broads
I'm a pitiful, poor, blind, naked, wretched, and redeemed man
They say: T you got the sauce and the seasoning, uh yeah
'Cause I'm Thomas Brady with the comeback (with the comeback)
When you used to struggling you know how to jump back
Just took another L
Okay, I jump back right, yeah
Deion, Deion, Deion, yeah, it's primetime Oh
My my, uh, I took them losses
Now it's time to grind, yeah
My mamma told me: Never stay down
Yeah, jump back right it's primetime
Primetime, yeah
I took them losses now it's time to grind, hm
My mama told me: Never stay down, yeah
Jump right back it's primetime
Primetime, oh, primetime
