

Torn to Shatters

Darkseed

And I wrap my arms around me
And think of times gone by
I used to share my fate with you
Wrapped in a robe of fireInhale - exhale
All that matters - torn to shattersHaving trusted you before
Made my desolate past live again
My earth-born spirit breath againI will search forevermore
Through the wind, the waves, the mist, the rain
Your smile is in my tears againInhale - exhale
All that matters - torn to shattersAnd I drift through empty days
I feel like a puppet on a string
I hear the songs you used to singI count the seconds, time unwinds
Walking in the shadows of my mind
Dissolved in thoughts, I melt into youBut the years and memories wither into a scroll
Unfathomed sorrow resonates within my soulAnd from my heart, I'll pour this song,
Of endless struggle, still it made me strong
Because these roots of love
Reach towards the skyAll that matters - torn to shattersHaving trusted you before
Made my desolate past live again
My earth-born spirit breath againSilently I close the door
Pondering words I somehow cannot say
Shutting the world far awayBut the years and memories wither into a scroll
Unfathomed sorrow resonates within my soulAnd from my heart, I'll pour this song,
Of endless struggle, still it made me strong
Because these roots of love
Reach towards the skySet me on fire with your glow
Feels like nothing I have felt before
Earth's lost its balance I can fly
