

It Was a Dark and Stormy Night

Alesana

Have you ever actually seen yourself without a mirror? To slip through the cracks of the universe, my love so true,

is my gift to you Trapped in a world that was dreamt by a madman, hallelujah!
hallelujah!

Little did he know his dreams would come true
I'm on to you! I'm on to you! Think, if only he could see the gorgeous rage
Then maybe he would never have bled ink on page

An artist, he was so consumed by a world he saw in his mind a world sadistic with lies and panicking cries Our world is so callous and cold, empty and lost
I'll bleed for you, to change it all, I'll die for you to save us all

This could be our only chance
This could be our only hope Lost in your passion, endless attraction, forever yours
You make me feel like I'm invincible

Love sings such a sweet ending
Ballad of lust, anticipate the irresistible Changing the end means going back to where it all began
If we survive we take control and start again
You've lost your mind, tear the fabric of time itself?!

Stay close to me, I will rewrite history for you Our world is so callous and cold, empty and lost
I'll bleed for you, to change it all, I'll die for you to save us all
This could be our only chance

This could be our only hope Lost in your passion, endless attraction, forever yours
You make me feel like I'm invincible
Love sings such a sweet ending

Ballad of lust, anticipate the irresistible As your hand drifts from mine
Two hearts still intertwined
Across both space and time
Remember I am yours
I am yours

Remember I am yours Time seizes my hand
Only a fool is never afraid Lost in your passion, endless attraction, forever yours
You make me feel like I'm invincible

Love sings such a sweet ending
Ballad of lust, anticipate the irresistible
Forever yours, irresistible

Forever yours, you make me feel like I'm invincible Annabel please don't go
I'll be fine, we'll be fine
