Remember

Micky Dolenz

Halfway there but no just yet.
Not even close to where we want to get.
Slam the car door before the tears fall.
I won't let you see what this really does to me...Remember. All along.
Who you are. Where you're from...I have my doubts and thats a fact.
You comehere and then you go back.
I'd just like to know where I stand with you.
Sweet words don't ring true
If you don't follow through...So you're going again.
Cause it's time to go home.
Just like every night.
I'm gonna sleep here aloneRemember...What did I do to get myself so sensitive?
How did it get to be so very complexative?
Wrap myself up in cellophane
To protect me from the pain...Remember...
