

Feel the Love (feat. Chuck New)

Sam Padrul

The night is so young
But we're all moving and shaking
Grooving, lovemaking
It's the place to be
So much soul and sexy ladies
I'm lookin' fly and I feel amazing I got the world in my hand
And I'm never letting go
And it's so good
I just can't stand it
Have the time of your life
I can keep it, I'm inside it
And I can feel the love tonight It's in the air
It's in your eyes
It's what you need
It's on your mind
You know it's on
And I feel the love, love, love tonight
It's in the way you move your hips
That little pucker of your lips
Blow me a kiss
And I feel that love, love, love tonight It seems your heart is on the run
But you gotta let loose and have some fun
It's gotta hold
And I feel the love, love, love tonight
Everybody's feeling good
NYC to Hollywood
It's so easy to feel the love, love, love tonight This round is on me
Light 'em up and take them down
Jump in my ride, we'll go downtown
I know the spot, where it's all free
Anything you want, just show me love and we'll get it started
I'm on the top, of my game
Had so many chances but you know it's just not the same
So take advantage, 'cause I'm the one
Please just keep it coming
Don't stop till you see the sun and I know the way to make you let go
(Letting go, heart and soul)
Now is the time for you and I
(By my side, soar tonight)

You've been searching for something that you couldn't find
But I know that you're feeling the love the tonight
Tonight, yeah
Oo, baby! It's in the air
It's in your eyes
It's what you need
It's on your mind
You know it's on
And I feel the love, love, love tonight
It's in the way you move your hips
That little pucker of your lips
Blow me a kiss
And I feel that love, love, love tonight It seems your heart is on the run
But you gotta let loose and have some fun
It's gotta hold
And I feel the love, love, love tonight
Everybody's feeling good
NYC to Hollywood
It's so easy to feel the love, love, love tonight?
