

I Don't Even Know Your Name

Molotov Cocktail Piano

Oh, you waited so long
Sometimes it's hard to stand out
And you don't have to do anything else
    But be yourself, oh
And you, you dressed up so nice
    But all I could see was your eyes
And the crowd came and pulled you away
    And then you were gone
Oh, yeahAnd I don't even know your name
    All I remember is that smile on your face
    And it'll kill me everyday
'Cause I don't even know your name
    Ooh everywhere that I go
    I'll see your face and it kills me to know
    That you never know what you did to me
And now you were gone, yeah I can't stop thinkin' about you'Cause I don't even know your name
    All I remember is that smile on your face
    And it'll kill me everyday
'Cause I don't even know your name
    Yeah, I don't even know your nameI'm running, I'm searching
    And I don't know where to start
    I'm dying my love you punched a hole right through my heart
    And I won't stop, stop looking
    'Till I hold you in my arms
'Cause I'm running, I'm running I'm runningI'm running, I'm searching
    And I don't know where to start
    I'm dying my love you punched a hole right through my heart
    And I won't stop, stop looking
    'Till I hold you in my arms
'Cause I'm running, I'm running I'm runningAnd I don't even know your name
    All I remember is that smile on your face
    And it'll kill me everyday
'Cause I don't even know your name
