Devil Inside You

Elis

Why can't I hear you breath?
Why can't I hold you?You just told me on the phone
Bad news, I can't believe they're true
Fate is too cruel to you it seems
It caught you at your weakest pointNothing left of your whole world
Besides chaos and smoking ruins
You thought there's nothing more to lose
You're wrong and he presents proofPlease fight the Devil inside you
Not enough time for us to spendWhy can't I hear you breath?
Why can't I hold you?You will need all of your strength
I hope that you can carry on
You fought the shadows of the ghosts
Now he's the one you will fight nextKnocking at your doors as if He is a guest you'd like to see
Don't let him in, just push him back
He is not welcome in your housePlease fight the Devil inside you
Not enough time for us to spend
Please fight the Devil inside you
Not enough time for us to spendPlease fight the Devil inside you
Not enough time to spend
Please fight the Devil inside you
Not enough time to spendPlease fight the Devil inside you
Not enough time to spend
