

Face Again

How to Dress Well

Go in daylight, they don't have to hide truth
And you know this before I have told you
And when they pass by they don't ask for nothing
You say your skin breaks like glass when they touch it
No, there's no way in
There's no way in
There's no way
No, we weren't meant to hunger in the night
No, we weren't made to wonder about what is right
Put their hand in your mouth, they'll hate you when you bite
I look into the future and see just so little light
Look me in my face again and tell me what you wanna see
I don't think you know what's best for me
No, I don't think you know what's best for me
Just kiss me on my face again
And tell me what love's supposed to be
No, I don't think you know what's best for me
No, I don't even know what's best for me
Yeah, your pain, baby, ain't got shit to buy you
And so if they could, they'd leave us out to die, too
And when they pass by they don't ask for nothing
And with brittle bones we weren't meant to fly, boo
No, there's no way in
There's no way in
There's no way
No, we weren't meant to hunger in the night
No, we weren't made to wonder about what is right
Put their hand in your mouth, they'll hate you when you bite
I look into the future and see just so little light
You know I want an answer, but I don't got the question
You know I want a change for more
When all comes against us it's supposed to be a blessing
No, it's not a change for more
You know I want an answer, but I don't got the question
You know I want a change for more
Look me in my face again and tell me what I ought to be
I really think you know what's best for me
Yeah, I know you know what's best for me
Just take me in your arms and tell me in the future we'll be home & free
'cause I don't even know what's best for me
Yeah, I don't even know what's best for me
