Sulliday

A.R. Kane; Art Kane

just as an opening door makes the specks of dust fly oh do you know them?
do you know they can bring you down?
in disguise...
in disguise...
doesn't, look at those flowers
oh oh
do what you know
every time i love you
i see angels crossing over i see angels passing by
(?)
tell when we make love like rain and i couldn't save you (fishing)
can't say
(?)
i told my heart today
that i love you
i tell my heart today
that i love you
listening angels passing by pass me by
