

Cold City Lights

Royal Hunt

In the heat of the night neon lights are so bright
I don't know where the hell they're leading me
So I walk like I'm blind, feel I'm loosing my mind
Are you sure this is how it's supposed to be? No, but it seems to me I'm falling Falling down to the same old ground again Cold City Lights all over you
Cold City playing games with you
Cold City Lights making sure that nothing is what it seems Cold City Lights you've got to know
Cold City never let you go
Cold City Lights all over the land of the broken dreams Everybody looks down, what is wrong with this town?
Every piece of it caught in a web of fear
In the middle of the crowd you can scream, you can shout
I'm afraid there's no one that'll ever hear you and it seems to me I'm falling
Falling down to the same old ground again
