

Should I Stay

Gabrielle

Here I am, waiting for a sign, I never seem to know.

If you want me in your life, where do I stand?

I just don't know

I never feel I know you

'Cause you blow hot and you blow cold.

It seems I've grown attached

Though we're not the perfect match

I just can't explain Should I stay

Should I go

Could I ever really stand to let you go?

Can you now find the right words to say,

That maybe I'm getting in your way I feel your warmth, got me wanting more, you've left the door half open

I'm in two minds to explore

But then again, am I being honest, being truthful to myself

Can I see my life without you

Could I be with someone else?

It seems I've grown attached

Though we're not the perfect match

I just can't explain it [Chorus] Should I stay

Should I go

I really think it's time you let me know

Can you now find the right words to say

That maybe I'm getting in your way It seems I've grown attached

Though we're not the perfect match

I just can't explain [Chorus]
