Little White Lies

Status Quo

(parfitt)
You were not home last night
When I called from the hotel
I tried to get you on the line
Or were you there with someone
And you couldn't tell me?
Just say it's true and I'll be fine
Why, why, why
Are you telling me those little white lies?
I won't buy anymore
Why, why, why
If you keep telling little white lies
I won't try anymore
It's been a long time now
Since we were close together
I see the distance in your eyes
There's something wrong
And all you gotta do is tell me

Just shout it out and I'll survive
Why, why, why
Are you telling me those little white lies?
I won't buy anymore
Why, why, why
If you keep telling little white lies
I won't try anymore
Now you must think that I believe
Every little lie you weave
So let me make it clear
'cos I don't wanna hear no more
Why, why, why
Are you telling me those little white lies?
I won't buy anymore
Why, why, why
If you keep telling little white lies
I won't try anymore
You're telling me little white lies
Little white lies

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/