Magic Dragon Theatre

Utopia

Look at all the advertising some kind of show
Come if you're going, patronize the magic dragon
Walk through the door, kiss off your boredomTuning up the orchestra
Bringing down the ceiling lights
All at once the curtain goes up
Now, it begins, strike up the band
Bring on the dancing girls and the freak paradeLook to your right where a gentleman sat
There sits a monkey in a tall silk hat
The lady on the left is now a pumpkin pie
That's when you notice that your chair is flying
High in the sky out over the sea
But don't wonder why, where else could you be, butWhere anything can happen
Down at the Magic Dragon Theater
(Come to the Magic Dragon, come to the Magic Dragon)
More than you can imagine
Down at the Magic Dragon Theater
(Come to the Magic Dragon, come to the Magic Dragon)Do you fancy melodrama?
Tragedy's mask, yours for the asking
Madness a la magic dragonWho could that be at this time of night?
I'm sure we weren't followed, Dr. Klang
Wait, pull down your knickers, he's going to hit us
Here goes your cue, don't blow your line
Dam, danger, I'm gonna go out there and get, get, getAll of a sudden there's a flash of light
Stars begin appearing in a moonlit night
Your vision of reality has gone awry
That's when you notice that your mind is flying
High in the sky out over the sea
But don't wonder why, where else could you be butWhere anything can happen
Down at the Magic Dragon Theater
(Come to the Magic Dragon, come to the Magic Dragon)
More than you can imagine
Down at the Magic Dragon Theater
(Come to the Magic Dragon, come to the Magic Dragon)WWhere anything can happen
Down at the Magic Dragon Theater
(Come to the Magic Dragon, come to the Magic Dragon)
More than you can imagine
Down at the Magic Dragon
