Gettin' Grown

Cee-Lo

Well, wellHey little boy you're not allowed to stay
You have to evolve inevitably
And I've sure come a long wayThe road up ahead is so unclear
Back slidin' down the bottom of beer
Nobody knew if I would make it hereAnd hey sweet music set me free
From the statistic that I started to be
I wish my mama was alive to seeThe memories of the pain have scarred
And when I fall it's usually hard
But I get up and keep followin' GodHey, I'm gettin' grown, gettin' grown
(La la la la la, la la la la la)
Gettin' grown, I'm gettin' grown hey
(La la la la la, la la la la la)Now I remember the good ol' days
Broads and boxes and blunts to blaze
Now I got three children to raiseI-I-I never won't be perfect I know
But workin' on it is worth it I know
Life is just learning as you goBeen selfish once or twice
I had to learn how to sacrifice
To live to my late nineties'd be niceEvery day that goes by I find
It either hits me or it robs me blind
God I owe You this life of mineI'm gettin' grown, I'm gettin' grown
(La la la la la, la la la la la)
Gettin' grown, gettin' grown
(La la la la la, la la la la la)Ooh, time changed but it feels the same
There's no tellin' what tomorrow will bring
Even if I could I wouldn't change a thangAnd hey hey, Lord I know I'm not here to stay
But thanks for wakin' me up today
Prepare me for what may come my wayAnd hey say, young man, there's no need to cry
Because I know you will get by
Look your destiny in the eyeOoh everyday my heart burns to try
You got to walk before you learn to fly
And we all got to earn to dieI'm gettin' grown, I'm gettin' grown
(La la la la la, la la la la la)
Gettin' grown, gettin' grown
(La la la la la, la la la la la)I'm gettin' grown, I'm gettin' grown
(La la la la la, la la la la la)
Gettin' grown, gettin' grown
(La la la la la, la la la la la)I'm gettin' grown, I'm gettin' grown
(La la la la la, la la la la la)
Gettin' grown, gettin' grown

(La la la la la, la la la la la)
