Bleed Alone

Haste The Day

Selfishness has brought me to this place
Unreal desires have slit the throat of happiness
Holding on to the memories that will never be again
Breaking the sacred vow taken a thousand times
Lies through the mouth of the one who believes
Wears the mask to cover all of the emptiness inside
I bleed alone, my eyes fail me
I bleed alone, my eyes fail me
I sink, can't swim, I'm drowning
Can't stay on top, can't move
I'm falling further away from you
Can't breathe, can't fight, can't move
I'm only suffering
Because the focus is gone
I bleed alone, my eyes fail me
I sink, can't swim, I'm drowning
Can't stay on top, can't move
I'm falling further away from you
Can't breathe, can't fight, can't move
I'm only suffering
Because the focus is gone
Selfishness has brought me to this place
Unreal desires, they slit the throat of happiness
Holding on to the memories that will never be again
