

Never Alone, Always Alone

Takida

Hold on tight, be the strong one to melt the fight, make it all right
Hatred grows, leaving leads for us, yes it shows, can't find harmony
You won't heal, it's for real Surely fall, never take friendship personal,

Go your own way and prove them wrong

It's in your hands now, hanging on to the hopeful words,
Plant a seed with a need I am never alone, I'm failing to turn

I will never miss home, I want to get back again

I am never alone, my colors will burn,

Never alone, always alone Fearful eyes watching all around,

All this time with no heart and you never cry

Where's the power in that? It's not right, sending signals of shame

I once knew, so did you I am never alone, I'm failing to turn

I will never miss home, I want to get back again

I am never alone, my colors will burn,

Never alone, always alone I am never, I am always alone, I will never miss home, Breathing lives, and your tears streaming,

Time we now, so

Hold on tight, be the strong one to melt the fight,

Make it all right!
