

Key Entity Extraction V: Sentry the Defiant

Coheed and Cambria

Believer

Your spotlight on the subject so incorrect
And suggestion suggests that I'm someone you should not respect
Oh you wear your facade so well
Covered up in a plastic shell
You're a liar to everyone around you
Just don't forget

Face the honest truth
You were never you

Now be defiant, the lion
Give them the fight that will open their eyes
Hangman hooded, softly swinging
Don't close the coffin yet
I'm alive

And it's homecoming
And it's homecoming

Can you remember
When there was no wrong in what I could do
So young, biting off way more than I could chew
And then one day I grew too old,
And my cares were now theirs to mold
Please accept this as my resignation
It's time to go

Face the honest truth
You were never you

Now be defiant, the lion
Give them the fight that will open their eyes
Hangman hooded, softly swinging,
Don't close the coffin yet
I'm alive

I'm alive

I will now bleed for what I believe in

No more mistakes for them to make for me
So goodbye, it's my time to bleed...

... to be me

Face the honest truth
You were never you

Now be defiant, the lion
Give them the fight that will open their eyes
Hangman hooded, softly swinging
Don't close the coffin yet
I'm alive

I'm alive
