

Dangerous

Peter Katz

Oh my darling of the night
How you pulled me from the light
Calling me to lie down by your side
Oh my darling of the night
Though I knew you weren't right
Still I'd do whatever you'd decide 'Cause your love was dangerous
And I was into taking risks I never loved you carefully
But from the rooftops screamingly
While you could never say it to my face
Except for when I fell in you
And all the shadows in the room
Echoed every movement of our grace 'Cause your love was dangerous
And I was into taking risks Cross my heart and hope to die
That time when you were in my life
Was the best that I have ever known
I'd bang my head against the wall
Break my legs then try to crawl
Just to have a moment of your time 'Cause your love was dangerous
And I was into taking risks
