

These Things Will Keep Me Loving You

Diana Ross

Oh, and I know these things will keep me loving you, dear

Say it again

These things will keep me loving you, dear A gentle touch upon my face, baby

A tender kiss and a warm embrace, honey

Oh, a few kind words

Spoken so sincere

And I know, and I know

These things will keep me loving you, dear

These things will keep me loving you, dear Give me your shoulder so I can cry on it, baby

Oh, give me advice that I can rely on, honey

Oh, say you love me every day of the year

And I know, and I know

These things will keep me loving you, dear

Say it again

These things will keep me loving you, dear Oh, and I know these things will keep me loving you, dear

Oh, baby, baby

Call me each night on the telephone, baby

Oh, send me a card when you're far from home, honey

Oh, hold me close to you, baby, every time you're near

And I know, and I know

These things will keep me loving you, dear

Oh, loving you, dear
