Say It's Over

N-dubz

Ah ahh ahh Haa haa haa Haa haa haa Naa nijij

I aint gunna lie you were number 1 then but i dont feel the same no more i just want you as a friend im done trying to pretend they say good things dont last forever some day they gotta end matter of fact im doing you a favour Had enough of fucking girls coming back to you later im sick of having to delete everything in my pager baby i aint Britney but im dropping up ya rader

She wonder why i never pick up my phone cuz all im tryin to do is keep it on the low i think i need to let her know before she find out on her own either way im gunna break her heart when i tell her go All my people round the world if you like somebody else

How do you find the words to say its over

Ive been wanting to tell you but i dont know how to tell you

How do you find the words to tell them its over

Baby its killing me this just isnt right for me

I think i like somebody else

Haaa haa haa x3 Niii

I aint gunna lie you were number one then but it just aint the same anymore your out of my top 10 this aint good for your health if only you knew that everytime im fucking you i think of somebody else i knew that one of us were gunna get hurt from the get go i told you i told i said so i hate having to fake the feeling everytime that we get low it i think its better for the both of us if we let go

She wonders why i'm never round these days but as soon i touch base she'll be all up in my face its the same old shit she never gives me any space how do i tell her someones taking her place

All my people round the world if you like somebody else
How do you find the words to say its over
Ive been wanting to tell you but i dont know how to tell you
How do you find the words to tell them its over
Baby its killing me this just isnt right for me
I think i like somebody else
Why should i feel guilty
Its plain to see i aint being myself
Is it wrong i want it from somewhere else
I been holding out for sooo long.

Now Why do i feel guilty
Its plain to see i aint being myself
Is it wrong i want it from somewhere else.
I been holding out for soooo long

Ooohhh wwooo oohhwwoo Cant take no more I wont pretend another day I think its time for me to say exactly how i feel cant take no more I just ain't happy any more I just keep lying to myself How do you find the words to say its over I been wanting to tell you but i dont know how to tell you How do you find the words to tell them its over Baby it's killing me this just isnt right for me I think i like somebody else Why should i feel guilty Its plain to see i aint being myself Is it wrong i want it from somewhere else I been holding out for sooo long. Now Why do i feel guilty Its plain to see i aint being myself Is it wrong i want it from somewhere else. I been holding out for soooo long Ha haaa ha haaa Ha haaaa Na Naniiiii Ha Haaa Ha haaa Ha haaaaaaaa
