

Another You

Orianthi

Shadows in this empty room
As I wake up dreams with you
It brought back that feeling
It made my heart stop beating
I miss your footsteps down the halls
Memories hanging on the walls
There's always something missing without you here
I'm just a distant

Well I'll do anything to get back everything, noNothing comes close, nothing feels right
No one can fill the space inside like you
But I'm doing my best to make it through
I'm trying to move on, get you off my mind
But it just feels wrong leaving you behind, it's true
So tell me what the hell I'm supposed to do
Cause I'm never gonna find another youWho's gonna kiss my lips goodnight?
Who's gonna hold me when I cry?
If this ain't love I'm making
Anyone else, I'm just faking
Do you ever think of me?
And how damn good we used to be?
Do you wish you could get it back

If you had the chanceNothing comes close, nothing feels right
No one can fill the space inside like you
But I'm doing my best to make it through
I'm trying to move on, get you off my mind
But it just feels wrong leaving you behind, it's true
Tell me what the hell I'm supposed to do
Cause I'm never gonna find another you, oh whoa

Another youI'll do anything to get back everything, noNothing comes close, nothing feels right
No one can fill the space inside like you
But I'm doing my best to make it through, oh
I'm trying to move on, get you off my mind
But it just feels wrong leaving you behind, it's true
Tell me what the hell I'm supposed to do
Cause I'm never gonna find another you

I'm never gonna find another you, oh noI'm never gonna find, never gonna find
I'm never gonna find, never gonna find
I'm never gonna find, never gonna find
Another you
