Lovin' You

Railroad Earth

Grab a cup in the mornin, out beneath the day UNSURE.
Share a glass at night, tell me how it was today.I've been lovin' you, for so long,
I'll be lovin' you, til I'm gone.Every song, every story.
Every taste, every town.
Every hope, every worry.
Every road I've been down.I've been lovin' you, for so long,
I'll be lovin' you, til I'm gone.Should this journey be ending, time carry you away.
I'll put on a brave face, get out and start again.But I've been lovin' you, for so long,
I'll be lovin' you, til I'm gone.
I've been lovin' you, for so long,
I'll be lovin' you, til I'm gone.
