Positive Outlook

Grim Reality

Through the clouds i see the light my conscience tells me
what's wrong and right
morals and goals deep inside a bunch of feelings i can't hide, but that's me
it's the way i live
my outlook on life is positive!
so what should i hide
or try to conceal
all of these feelings
that i feel like to sit and talk about them i want to stand and shout them!!
