

Bullseye (Abbey Road Sessions)

Aly & AJ

Everybody's trying to get to me
Every guy is out for the kill
I'm the type of girl worth pursuing
But I won't be caught standin' still, no, I won't
You're blowing all of your attention on me
Take your best shot, I bet you'll miss
You've got me interested enough to stand closer
Maybe try a little kiss You hit the bullseye, baby
(You hit the bullseye, baby)
Now I need to go crazy
(You know you hit the mark)
Don't know how you got me started
(I'm not an easy target)
Hit it
You hit the bullseye
You hit my heart I'm surprised the way you affect me
Like you never planned it straining my heart
Naturally, you seem to just get me
So obviously you're pretty smart
I like the way you're dressed up, messed up
I like the way you don't care
I wasn't certain that you'd ring my bell, but
Then you whispered in my ear You hit the bullseye, baby
(You hit the bullseye, baby)
Now I need to go crazy
(You know you hit the mark)
Don't know how you got me started
(I'm not an easy target)
Hit it
You hit the bullseye
You hit my heart You hit my heart You didn't ask me for my number
Wait, you didn't ask me for my number
I like the fact that you didn't ask that
'Cause you already got my number, huh? You hit the bullseye, baby
(You hit the bullseye, baby)
Now I need to go crazy
(You know you hit the mark)
Don't know how you got me started
(I'm not an easy target)

Hit it Yeah, yeah, yeah
You hit the bullseye
Yeah, yeah, yeah
You hit the bullseye
Yeah, yeah, yeah
You hit the bullseye
Yeah, yeah, yeah
You hit my heart
