

Now And Forever

K-Ci & JoJo

They're always running around
Telling me I should be free
But there's no kind of way
I'd let them take your love from me You see I'm not one who goes on Speculation hearsay gossip
But I'm a firm believer
In trusting caring and loving My love for you is so timeless
It's deeper than the depth of emotion
And everyday goes by I am finding
The reasons that I love you more and more Now and forever will I love you and be true
Now and forever will I keep what we have new
I will cherish, adore you
Trust and give my all to you Now and forever will I always love you
I'm not entrusted in starting all over again
To give you up on someone's words
It's not something I'd do You see you can tell a tree
By the fruit that it bears
And from where I stand
I see my field is yielding Wish we could sail away on an ocean
Float away on midnight dreams
And we don't need a magic potion
So we can live inside our dreams Now and forever will I love you and be true
Now and forever will I keep what we have new
I will cherish, adore you
Trust and give my all to you Now and forever will I always love you
You're everything I want in a lover
You're everything I need in a friend yes you are You're the shoulder that I'm leaning and depending on And I could never hurt you
You're everything to me
