Falling Out Of Reach

Guillemots

slow down, slow down you'll only get burnt out calm down, calm down you're getting so worn out they're trying to make you compromize there's fire burning in your eyes darling,
your slowly drifting out of reach,
I'm slowly drifting out of reach, we're slowly drifting out of reach your slowly falling out of reach, I'm slowly falling out of reach, we're slowly falling out of reach out of reach so, home is just a word now you don't see it anymore the child's eyes are vacant now and lights are just a glare and the musics gone and your always wrong, and there's people everywhere but darling time will make amends just need a rest you just need your friends their slowly drifting out of reach your slowly drifting out of reach,

your slowly falling out of reach,
I'm slowly falling out of reach,
oh oh keep falling, falling down we don't need this, we don't need this now. we should be sleeping yeah you should be sleeping ohhh your slowly drifting out of reach I'm slowly drifting out of reach,
your slowly falling out of reach,

I'm slowly falling out of reach,
don't cry
don't cry
burnt eyes fill up in the sky
