

Half of Us

The Kennedys

You're so unreal.
That's how I feel.
And I've been watching you all day.

You're kind of square.
But I don't care.
'Cause I could love you anyway.

And all I want to be
is half of you and me.
So count me in 'cause one and one is two.

And all I want to do
is hang around with you.
Half of us is all I want to be.

I won't deny
I'm really shy.
But there's just something I gotta say.

I'll put it straight.
Cause if I wait
I think my feet might turn to clay.

And all I want to be
is half of you and me.
So count me in 'cause one and one is two.

And all I want to do
is hang around with you.
Half of us is all I want to be.

Got to make you mine.
That's the bottom line.

All I want to be
is half of you and me.
So count me in cause one and one is two.

And all I want to do

is hang around with you.
Half of us is all I want to be.

Half of us is all I want to beeeeeee.
