

Over

Kings of Leon

I see it crash beneath me, I smell the winter sky, look into myself, don't pass me by you dance in strange conditions, with strangers of the night, i see you're crazy and so am i you bled out in the room, the boys of NYU, they saw you coming from miles away. Nothing is quite as homey,, the drive leaves something in, they see you hanging and and cast away oh, don't say it's over, don't say it's over, anymore.
oh, don't say it's over, don't say it's over, anymore. bright lights they made the city, and look on christmas eve and all the good times, we've ever seen. the rules, we played together, that slope across my face and brings new reason, we write the scene, oh, don't say it's over, don't say it's over, anymore. oh, don't say it's over, don't say it's over, anymore. my angel hovers over, the light comes crashing and i know this is how his story ends i'll hang around forever, until you cut me down, all brushed and ready, to face the crowd oh, don't say it's over, don't say it's over, anymore.
oh, don't say it's over, don't say it's over, anymore.
