

Men Buy The Drinks (girls Call The Shots)

Steve Holy

Eve said to Adam, 'Honey how 'bout a bite??
He said, 'Baby sounds tempting but you know it ain't right?
But Eve was wearing one of those low-cut leaves
So they shook that apple right off of that tree
Ever since then it's been a battle of the sexes
In a game called love it's wife Vs. ex's
Sometimes they let us win, boy, so we feel like we beat 'em but Admit it fellas, they could go undefeated
'Cause it's a woman's world, might as well face it
Yeah, they got what we want and we're willing to chase it
It's a woman's world, boys, like it or not
Men buy the drinks, girls call the shots
Us boys think we're smarter, I know that's a shocker
But once they start looking like the combination to their locker
All they gotta do is flash a schoolgirl look
Next thing you know we're carrying their books
Once they get a little older it's just more of the same
Just costs a little extra if you wanna stay in the game
But don't think for one minute boys that we're in control
They know we can't live without 'em, that's their ace in the hole
'Cause it's a woman's world, might as well face it
Yeah, they got what we want and we're willing to chase it
It's a woman's world, boys like it or not
Men buy the drinks, girls call the shots, yeah
Yeah, it's a woman's world, might as well face it
Yeah, they got what we want and we're willing to chase it
It's a woman's world, boys, like it or not
Men buy the drinks, girls call the shots
Yeah, it's a woman's world
Ooh, it's a woman's world
Yeah, it's a woman's world
Men buy the drinks, girls call the shots
Yeah, it's a woman's world
Ooh, it's a woman's world
Yeah, it's a woman's world
Men buy the drinks, girls call the shots
Yeah, it's a woman's world
