

Fall Free

Alan Parsons

What's the use of worrying if we'll be here tomorrow
All we need to be is here today
Don't care if you're rich or if you have to beg and borrow
You can always find a way Dive and breakaway Fall free, freedom's in the air
It's calling you, your heart is there
Fall free, blaze across the sky
The perfect fall, the perfect high Mother earth looks peaceful as we climb towards the ceiling
We must be ten thousand feet or more
Hear the wind rush screaming while we fight to curb our feelings
As we stand beside the door Let our spirits soar Fall free, freedom's in the air
It's calling you, your heart is there
Fall free, blaze across the sky
The perfect fall, the perfect high Fall free, freedom's in the air
It's calling you, your heart is there
Fall free, blaze across the sky
The perfect fall, the perfect high
