

Sea Of Lies

Varcity

Today I've seen the shallow face I wear,
Inside this shell, a living hell endures,
I'm held captive by my fear, decaying hope and wasted years,
The knife of time carves another line around these eyes. Good and evil - lust primeval,
Dragging me into a sea of lies. Losing faith in who I am,
Never changing just rearranging my life again,
Through into an eternal abyss I fall,
Silent screams through paper walls,
I pray someday the sun will shine on me again,
Shine on me again. Good and evil - lust primeval,
Dragging me into a sea of lies.
Lies.
Lies.
