Lifted

Insolence

This is how it be in actuality, well I be showing love for you
You got some girl for me
I knew it from the start an arrow through my heart
That is why I'm loving you yeah from the very start
Always walk beside me, no you're never left behind
Picked me up when I fell, saved me from the gates of hellYour love is lifting me
Higher (Than I've ever been before)
Higher (Than I've ever been before)
Higher (Than I've ever been before)
Your love is lifting meYou'll never comprehend the things you've done for this man
Show my love with screams but you stillhold my hand
Came into my life and that is actually got a love inside
I'm not afraid to see, because I never thought I could feel Somthing so right, I never thought I could be involved yeah so tight
Turn my love into an addiction and the more I get Caught up
The harder it its to set me freeOne head ain't better than two, one head ain't better than two
What the, you gonna do when she puts her curse on you, kid what?
You're probably wanting an exit, you don't want to hear it
It's only love and a girl so tell me why in the world you fear it
You say you want to split before that shit let's you slip
But you're lying to yourself, intoxicated by her lips
I know what it's like to be blue and it's some whack shit to go through
But once again you're controlled by her voodoo, what?
Boo boo head try to take over dread make me want to bop
Bop bop up on their head, a lot of them I've regretted a lot of them got me sweated, but ...Your love is lifting me
Higher (Than I've ever been before)
Higher (Than I've ever been before)
Higher (Than I've ever been before)
Your love is lifting meThe love once possessed was the only thing left and now a million
Miles away I can't handle the stress the love that she once gave me
Now lost in space, like Atlantis that shit vanished, how without a trace
Titanic is the weight upon my shoulders
Attiturde gets colder, war is like a battlefield and I'm a wounded soldier
Enemy would straight leave me out for dead mental state condition red
Over bullshit that was saidNot very usual for the girl to understand it
You can tell it in her eyes, she doesn't comprehend it!
Maybe if she did, the place your mind once hid and soon be all
Abandon and your brain ain't on the skids

Finally, your mind will be entirely, swept clean of all bad things
This shit is not a dream, but it has to be natural
I can deal without a scene become dramatical
Say that you don't like it, but I know that you're a liar, 'cause
To you the whole relationship seeming like a trail
Say you don't like it, but I know that you're a liar 'cause ...Your love is lifting me
Higher (Than I've ever been before)
Higher (Than I've ever been before)
Higher (Than I've ever been before)Your love is lifting me
Higher (Than I've ever been before)
Higher (Than I've ever been before)
Higher (Than I've ever been before)Your love is lifting me
Your love is lifting me
Your love is lifting me (Higher)
Your love is lifting me (Higher)
